Mandeep Minhas is a litigation associate with Hamilton Duncan. He has gained experience in providing comprehensive legal services in a variety of areas relating to personal injury litigation. He has represented clients at both the Provincial Court and Supreme Court of British Columbia in complex and contested matters.

During his legal studies, Mandeep provided free legal assistance to low-income members of the Saskatoon Community. He successfully advocated for clients at the Residential Tenancy Board and Saskatchewan Provincial Court. Mandeep also engaged in a variety of charity events held through his law school.

Mandeep was born and raised in Vancouver and joined Hamilton Duncan in March 2019 as a Litigator. Prior to joining Hamilton Duncan, he worked as litigation counsel for a boutique personal injury law firm. Mandeep obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of British Columbia. When not in the office, he enjoys outdoor activities and spending time with his family.
